BUILDING A SYSTEM OF NON-STANDARD TASKS AIMED AT DEVELOPING LOGICAL THINKING OF PUPILS

Djuraeva Dilnoza Shakirjonovna
Lecturer
Termez State University
Termez, UZBEKISTAN

ABSTRACT

Mathematics is mainly liked by students who know how to solve problems. Therefore, by teaching children the ability to solve non-standard problems, we will have a significant impact on their interest in the subject, the development of logical thinking and speech. Besides, they are a powerful means of activating cognitive activity, i.e. they arouse great interest and desire to work in children.

Keywords: Individual, non-standard task, solving problems, role, teacher.