

THE INFORMATION COMPETENCE AS A FACTOR OF MANAGEMENT FOR FUTURE MANAGERS IN THE EDUCATION SYSTEM

Abduraximov Quyoshbek

Researcher, Tashkent State Pedagogical University, UZBEKISTAN

ABSTRACT

The article analyses the information competence as a factor of management for future managers in the education system. Modern society is gradually coming to understand the need for the formation of information competence as an important social problem. Since the theory of management of educational systems, the components of which are: definition and properties; control subjects; scheme of management activities; performance criteria for management; methods (species), types, forms, terms, tools, functions, principles, objectives and creates mechanisms of management in education.

Keywords: Analysis, competence, key competencies, information competence, the formation of information competence, development, management.

1.